SENATORS LEAVING AND THE END NEAR

WASHINGTON BEING DESERTED BY LEGISLATORS.

No Chance for Bills to Pass Unless by Unanimous Consent—House Only Waiting for the President's Action on the Tariff.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—The final action of the President on the tariff bill is the only thing that stands between the senate and adjournment. It is the general opinion that with the bill passed upon by the chief executive adjournment could be arranged within a day's time. The last of the appropriation bills received the final consideration of the senate during the last week, and even without the passage of the Murphy resolution there would not have been much probability of any general legislation, owing to the likelihood of there being no quorum. The last roll call Saturday discovered only forty-five senators, two more than a quorum, in the chamber, and the highest number of the day was fifty-four. Several have left since and it is entirely probable the session to-day will open without the number requisite to do business in the face of objection. It is probable, therefore, the daily sessions from this time forward will be brief, and that only bills to which there is no opposition from any senator or over which there is no contest will be taken up. The democratic managers hope to have the bill repealing the provision in the tariff bill exempting alcohol used in the arts and in the manufacture of medical preparations included in this list. There appears a likelihood of opposition on the republican side, and if there should be this bill will necessarily go over until the next session. The democratic members of the finance committee also hope to report the supplemental tariff bills during the week, but do not expect action on them. Probably no considerable time will be spent in executive session in confirming nominations to which no one objects.

WAITING ON THE PRESIDENT.

His Action on the Tariff to Determine the Time of Adjournment.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—The house of representatives is ready to adjourn to-day. Its work has been completed, it is only awaiting the action of the senate and of the President. It is probable it will adjourn from day to day until congress adjourns. It may be, however, the time will be partly occupied by giving days to the several committees of the house to consider such business as they care to bring up, but this question has not been decided. To-day, under the rules, is suspension day, as are also the last six days of the session, but as a resolution for adjournment will not be passed until the President acts on the tariff bill, the rule with reference to suspension days will not go into effect until the date of adjournment has been fixed by both houses.

Cleveland Withholds His Signature.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—The river and harbor bill, carrying $11,473,189, became a law at midnight Saturday without President Cleveland's signature, the legal limit of ten days having expired within which he could sign or veto it. Aside from the amount carried by the bill the sundry civil appropriation bill also creates $8,400,000 for river and harbor contracts, making a total for this class of work of $19,873,189. This is about two million less than the amount given for river and harbor work at the first session of the last congress. An important feature of the new bill is that it authorizes no new contracts.

BANDIT AND HIS WIFE KILLED.

Attacked and Shot by a Troop of Soldiers Near Mexico City.

MEXICO CITY, Mexico, Aug. 20.—The killing of the famous border bandit, Luna, and his wife by a troop of soldiers forty miles from this place has caused great rejoicing in Tamalepis. The soldiers came unexpectedly on the notorious couple, who immediately took refuge behind some rocks and opened fire. The soldiers returned it, and killed them both. Luna's wife, as usual, fought by her husband's side, and only ceased when killed. They have committed hundreds of robberies and six assassinations. The dead desperado was once imprisoned for two years in a Texas penitentiary, but, making his escape, has been a terror for several years along the Rio Grande.

Acquittal of Major Worth.

OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 20.—Major William Worth, second infantry, who was ordered court-martialed by President Cleveland for ordering Private Cedarquist to participate in target practice on Sunday, was acquitted Saturday and released from custody. The findings of the court were that the orders to Cedarquist were warranted by the exigencies of the occasion and that the proclamation of President Lincoln was not in force at present, not being part of the army regulations.

BOISE CITY, Idaho, Aug. 20.—Postmaster Heed of Albion, in this state, is short in his accounts $2,700. Cause is pressed to be gambling.

FAIR WANTS A MILLION.

Begins Suit Against Executors of His Mother's Vast Estate.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 20.—Charles Fair has begun another effort in the probate department of the Superior court to secure $1,000,000 of his mother's estate. Mrs. Fair left $500,000 to each of her sons. James was to receive his at his 35th birthday and Charles was to get his at his 30th birthday. It was provided by the will that in case either son died before attaining the age named without wife or lawful children his share should revert to his brother. James died two years ago, when he was 30 years old. Charles claimed his legacy then, but both Superior and Supreme courts decided that Charles must wait for James' legacy until such time as the latter would have been 35. Since that decision Charles has married and claims that the ceremony altered the case, entitling him to immediate possession of both legacies. Mrs. Fair's eldest daughter is now entitled to receive $1,500,000, her share of her mother's estate, which is ready for distribution. The new contest will probably tie up the property for another year.

Lillian Russell stays with Henry E. Abbey in spite of the law courts, Mr. Abbey paying a $10,000 forfeit. It is said. Rehearsals of "The Queen of Brilliants" are being pushed actively and the prompter and accompanist have gone to Queenstown in a special saloon carriage with a piano to meet the Aurania and bring the singers expected to be on board to London.

WILL NOT RESIGN.

Secretary Carlisle and the President Are Not at Odds.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—It is not believed that Secretary Carlisle will resign from the cabinet in consequence of friction between him and the President arising from the secretary's letter to Senator Harris. In fact, Mr. Carlisle's friends and relatives here deny that there has been any friction. They declare that the story that the President is indignant at his secretary's advocacy of the sugar trust and opposition to the free coal and free iron and free barbed wire bills is untrue.

Corbett Sued with the Offer.

SIoux CITY, Iowa, Aug. 20.—The Sioux City Athletic club received a telegram from W. A. Brady, Corbett's manager, saying Corbett accepts the offer of the club of a purse of $25,000 to fight Peter Jackson here. The offer was at once telegraphed Jackson guaranteeing training expenses and all he asks. Members of the club expect no interference and think that the fight will be pulled off in Sioux City.

Senator Mendoza, editor of El Deber, in Panama, is charged with being implicated in the plot and may be banished.

Sioux City Women Use Whips.

SIoux CITY, Iowa, Aug. 20.—Two dissolute women went from here to the little town of Dalton, to live in the outskirts of that place, a few days ago. Last night about fifty women raided a harness store, got at the whips, went to the house and drove the women through the streets, lashing them unmercifully, and out into the country, warning them not to come back.

DOINGS OF THE DAY IN THE NORTHWEST

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM MANY STATES.

Dubuque, Iowa, to Own Its Own Water Works—Protest Against the Decoration of a Monument—To Celebrate a Historic Battle.

DUBUQUE, Iowa, Aug. 20.—For some time past there has been trouble between the Dubuque water company and the consumers. The company has three sources of supply, the level, artesian wells, and the river. The first two are first-class and the latter very bad, because it is pumped up and delivered for consumption without filtering. The city had threatened to take away the company's charter unless a strictly pure article was furnished. The latter has taken the bull by the horns, and offers to sell its works to the city. It is understood local capitalists will advance the money to make the purchase if properly secured by a mortgage on the plant. It is likely the transfer will be made, as public sentiment is in favor of it. The city itself is unable to issue bonds because its bonded indebtedness is already up to the limit, but can in this manner legally issue water bonds.

Object to Individual Medallions.

OTTUMWA, Iowa, Aug. 20.—The people of Iowa have decided to erect a monument at the state capital in honor of 80,000 citizens who periled their lives as volunteers during the years 1861-5. Cloutman Post No. 69, G. A. R., at a recent meeting adopted resolutions protesting against the individual designation in any manner of any soldier, living or dead, in the construction of the monument. Efforts will be made to have every G. A. R. post in Iowa adopt similar resolutions and forward to the Monument commission.

BOONE, Iowa, Aug. 20.—Notice of suits against all saloonkeepers of this city has been filed. The move is for the purpose of testing the law. The cases will come up for trial this week.

NEWS FROM ABROAD WHISPERS OF WAR

CHINESE AND JAPANESE TO MEET SOON.

A Decisive Battle Expected to Take Place—New South American Republic Not Believed In—General Foreign News.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—A dispatch from Shanghai says it is reported there that instead of a large Chinese army only a small force was routed at Yashan by the Japanese. The remainder of the army, it is said, has gone north to join the northern forces. Skirmishes are reported to have taken place at Pingyang of the province of Shan See and a great battle is expected to be fought there shortly. The Chinese at Shanghai are suffering from a spy mania that has developed among officials. All vessels arriving in Two Song river are boarded by Chinese naval officers and searched for spies and contraband of war. Two prominent Japanese have been arrested within the French concession on an unfounded charge of spying. They are still detained for trial. The dispatch further states that a number of Englishmen and Scotchmen have been obliged to leave the arsenal at Wei Hai Wei, owing to the war. They had been fired at by the Chinese guards and some of them would undoubtedly have been killed had it not been for the protection afforded them by Chinese officers. It is added that on three successive nights Japanese torpedo boats forced the boom guarding the water entrance to Wei Hai Wei. They either evaded or outmaneuvered the torpedoes that have been laid by the Chinese and effected an entrance to the ports, the defense of which had heretofore been supposed impregnable. The Japanese did not engage the forts, and it is said they were only in search of information as to the lines to be followed in the event of it being decided to make an attack in force upon the place.

NO CASE AGAINST PIERCE.

He and Others Arrested for Bank Wrecking May Escape.

Pierce, who was indicted with the Haugheys and Coffins for looting the Indianapolis National bank, will not be tried at the approaching term of court and that the cases against both Mr. Pierce and Cashier Rexford will be stricken off. Mr. Pierce made good his indebtedness of $65,000 some time ago. According to the program now Schuyler Haughey will be tried next month, but there is a possibility that his case may go over until the Supreme court has decided on the questions that led to the supersedeas granted the Coffins after they had spent a few days in the Michigan City prison. Their attorneys are confident they will be given a new trial ultimately and there is a possibility none of the seven men indicted save President Haughey, who pleaded guilty and is now in prison, will ever be made to suffer for the wrecking of the bank.

SMALL-POX SPREAD BY PEST HOUSES.

DR. W. P. ROBERTS ARRAYS
MODERN QUARANTINE.

Vaccination Not a Preventive, He Declares, and the Isolation Hospital Does More Harm Than It Does Good—How Doctors Have Been Changing Front.

EDITOR GAZETTE: The press accounts all over the country of small-pox riots in Milwaukee will doubtless result in great good ere long. That "pest houses" for small pox, from a scientific standpoint, are pestilential nuisances, is easy of proof, that there is no more need of them in the treatment of small-pox than in many other infectious and contagious diseases, is easy of demonstration, that by and through them the people have protection from the disease is fallacious, and that the law by which they are created is pernicious, the present disturbances in Milwaukee go to show. The public health departments, and medical profession all over this country are exhibiting fossilized excrecences, the two most hideous of which are "small-pox pest houses" and "vaccination." There is no need of magnifying glasses to discern them.

It is about time the people's educators, the public press, shoulder the "setting-mall" and pitch in and knock some of the fossilized excrecences of old-fogy fallacies to smithereens, and give the people a big boost out of their fears and foolish superstitions up against the branches of the second growth timber of common-sense. Small-pox per-se is a simple disease to treat, its dangers not half as much to be dreaded as scarlet fever or diphtheria. If handled properly nearly every case can be cured in from three to six days in their homes without exposing or endangering others any more, if as much, as by the horrible pest house isolation, and with a great deal less danger to the life of the patient; then why allow the persistent fossilized health departments to add terrifying horrors to the afflicted victims? There are more potent and far less dangerous preventives against the ravages of small-pox than the dangerous and damnable "bovine-virus vaccination," as a general rule good sanitary regulations rigidly carried out is all that need be done.

It was my province in one severe epidemic which was raging in Chicago not many years ago (in 1882 and 1883 as I remember) that I tested the horse or malindrinum remedy both as a preventive and curative for small-pox. In a German family living in a small four-room house at the outskirts of our village (Barrington, Ills.), the mother of the three small children in some unaccountable manner contracted confluent small-pox. She, if thorough vaccination would protect from small-pox, was well protected by twice complying with the compulsory vaccination law of Germany. There were more than a dozen well defined vaccination scars upon her arms and lower limbs. Her husband had not been vaccinated since boyhood, and neither of the three little girls had ever been assaulted by the "vaccinator." As good fortune had it she lived outside of Cook county, and Lake county had no pest house; so we had it all our way (save that the house was quarantined by the town supervisor). The husband did the nursing and took care of the children, the neighbors providing the food by leaving it in a box outside the fence where the man was allowed to go and get it day by day. He and each child got a dose of the malindrinum twice each day. The mother, with her face painted black with willow charcoal paste to prevent pitting, got the same remedy and only one other, during her severe sickness. She made a quick and satisfactory recovery; there was no spreading from that house notwithstanding I visited there daily, then went and came from house to house visiting many other sick ones. Neither did the husband or either of the children have any symptoms of small pox. Since then I will not vaccinate people or children to protect them from having small pox, and there is no law in the land that can compel me to be vaccinated while I live, nor policemen enough in Milwaukee to enforce such a law upon my live body. The account of how malindrinum came to be curative and prophylactic is very interesting. I must not take your space now to relate it, but in order to prove my premises I must claim space to speak of vaccination fallacies.

First let me call your attention to the article upon "vaccination" as published in the Encyclopedia Britannica 9th edition, and explain how it came to be published.

Dr. Charles Creighton of London, England, a very eminent pathologist of modern times, (also the author of the article upon "Pathology" in the same edition) was chosen as being the one well fitted to write on vaccination, he being in favor of it until he began his researches from which to gather data out of which to compile his manuscript for a scientific article on vaccination. By the time he had completed the article it was thoroughly anti-vaccination, and he informed the publishers of the fact, and offered to release them from their contract, thinking that it would antagonize the fossilized ideas of the medical profession, ninety-five per cent of whom believed in the practice that has been handed down to them for nearly one hundred years. The publishers wishing to get facts for their new edition requested him to submit his manuscript, which he did; and they in turn submitted it to several other eminent medical men to review. Each one not knowing any other had seen it advised the publishers to publish it, for it was every word truth. It is now public property, and reliable information. Why do I say it is reliable? Because soon after it was published, the English parliament enacted a resolution which resulted in the appointment of an investigating committee to find out if Dr. Creighton was right in his premises. That committee has been investigating the vaccination fallacy five days per week, for five years and has verified all Dr. Creighton has given in his article, and much more of the direful abomination of the practice of bovine pus-poisoning by vaccination has been brought to light. Their unbiased and impartial reports show that there are a half score or more diseases human flesh has to contend with than are ever known of previous to vaccination being heralded by Jenner in 1798. Speaking of "fallacious excrecences," please permit me to quote eminently learned and experienced medical leaders to substantiate my declarations "Medicine is Not a Science, It Is Only An Experiment."

Sir Asterly Cooper, the famous English surgeon, declared "The science of medicine is founded on conjecture and improved by murder."

Dr. Evans, Fellow of the Royal College, London, said: "The popular medical system is a most uncertain and satisfactory system. It has neither philosophy nor common sense to commend it to confidence."

Dr. Benjamin Rush, of the University of Pennsylvania, said: "I am incessantly led to make apology for the instability of the theories and practices of medicine. Dissections daily convince us of our ignorance of disease and cause us to blush at our prescriptions and mistakes. What mischief have we not done under the belief of false facts and false theories? We have assisted in multiplying diseases; we have done more, we have increased their fatality."

Our much quoted and highly esteemed poet doctor, Oliver Wendell Holmes, once said: "Mankind has been dragged to death, the world would be better off if the contents of every apothecary shop were emptied into the sea, though the consequence to the fishes would be lamentable."

Dr. Abercrombie, fellow of the Royal College of Physicians at Edinburgh, declared: "Medicine has been called by philosophers the art of conjecturing, the science of guessing."

I might go on quoting from many other just as eminent medical men and give you the contents of a 4 by 6 inch pamphlet of forty pages of similar sayings to prove my premises, but my time and your space forbids at this time; I have given enough to convince people of common horse sense that the medical profession when left to their persistent ruts will follow from generation to generation, until the people arise in their might to protect their health and lives. So it seems the time has come for the press to get on the right side and help protect the people as a whole instead of backing up fallacious excrecences.

"Compulsory vaccination if enforced is making people and helpless children 'sick by law.' It is damnable and unconstitutional and ought to be repealed quickly."

Forcing sick innocent patients into pest houses is a relic of barbarism and ought never to be allowed in any civilized country. It and its twin brother vaccination must soon follow those other old barbarian twins, calomel and the lance into hades there to remain until the judgment day of their creators, the fossilized guessing medical profession, who for ages past seem to have thought they were the conservators of the people's health, and after some old lady or India media, had used something to assist nature and they had found out about it concluded they could set themselves up as leaders of the guessing school. Yours for less fear of small-pox, and more reliable information.

PRaise FOR OUR CONGRESSMAN
A Deserved Compliment to Hon. H. A. Cooper, of the First District.

The editor of the Superior (Wis.) Leader, made a trip to Washington some weeks ago, during which he called upon the members of congress from Wisconsin. In the columns of his paper he has the following to say of our congressman, H. A. Cooper: "I have known him for many years. He is one of the most clean, high-minded, kindly and accomplished men in public life in Wisconsin or elsewhere, and a lawyer of marked ability. He is making a close and careful study of the history and management of our government. He buys and reads everything authentic on that subject and is already familiar with the precedents and proceedings of congress back to colonial times. His memory is admirable and his mental digestion excellent."

The south always outgeneraled the north in statesmanship and diplomacy because she sent her best men to Washington, and kept them there practically for life. In this way they became trained in all the ways of government, not only this, but knew all the weaknesses of the constantly changing raw material of the north, and so for seventy years, though in a minority, easily dominated the house, senate and administration. The north should learn a lesson from this and when a constituency finds a model congressman like Mr. Cooper keep him in office until he can be of some service to his country and constituents and some satisfaction to himself."

FIGHT AT THE JAIL WAS A SAVAGE ONE

TOUGHS ORGANIZED TO RES-CUE YOUNG LA POINT.

Nine Would-Be Jail-Breakers Drove Over From Beloit to Force an Entrance and Deliver a Comrade—Marshal Webber's Pluck Was Good Enough To Win.

The big row at Rockton, the bold attempt of Beloit thugs to liberate a prisoner from the city jail and the desperate battle which followed the attack on the bastille, the news of which was given in the Gazette created the biggest kind of a sensation in this city and people were eager for the latest details of the affair.

Now it is claimed that it was one of the notorious characters of Beloit, who hauled nine of the thugs from Beloit to Rockton Thursday night, the attack on the jail to release La Point being all planned before they left the Line city. The citizens of Rockton anticipated the attack and Town Marshal Webber, a brother of Tom Webber, and Hugh Murray were placed on guard about the lock-up. The gang of toughs put in an appearance and the watchman ordered them away, but they only jeered at the officers and began prying open the jail bars. Then Marshal Webber pulled his gun and opened fire on the crowd, the trigger snapping the first four times he attempted to shoot it. One of the ringleaders got a flesh wound in the face, however, when the gun was snapped the fifth time. The crowd took to their heels, but Webber and Murray kept up the firing, the former dropping one man. Then the thugs rallied, and returned the fire until the wounded man, who turned out to be William Sullivan, could be carted out by his companions.

Wounded Man Under Guard.
Friday morning Dr. Bennett, of Beloit, was summoned to the house of William La Point, on the state line father of Bob, who is in jail, to attend a man who claimed to have shot himself or been shot. While the doctor was there Supervisor Snyder and his posse put in an appearance from Rockton, dividing in two parties, one going through the notorious Whalen joint run by the Higgins brothers, to arrest them for illegal liquor selling, while the rest of the party went to the La Point house after Sullivan. Mr. Snyder and his posse were informed that if an attempt was made to take Sullivan out of the house, blood would be shed and somebody get hurt. The plucky little supervisor whipped out his gun in a second, and then all were ready to admit that he was master of the situation.

Sullivan was placed on a cot, and in a spring wagon, under a strong guard, was hustled off to Rockton, the Higgins brothers also being taken along. They were all taken before Justice Vaners of Rockton and given an examination. Bob La Point was held to the grand jury for deadly assault on Albert Boone and ordered sent to the Rockford jail. William Sullivan, one of the would-be jail deliverers, who received not less than a half dozen bullets in his legs and body, was also bound over. Charles Higgins, bartender for the Higgins brothers at the Whalen dive, pleaded guilty to selling liquor without a license and was fined $70 and costs, which he paid.

Sullivan Claims to be an Easterner.
La Point and Sullivan were taken to Rockford Friday evening and placed in the county jail, it being hinted at Rockton that if the parties were left in the flimsy lock-up there over night, another attempt would be made to release them. La Point was obliged to sleep in his cell with handcuffs on last night, the key being left in Rockton in the hurry to catch the train.

Sullivan was placed in the female department of the jail on a cot. When seen by a reporter he claimed to be suffering great pain, three of the charges still being in his legs. His hat was shot full of holes, which goes to show that Webber's aim was good and it is only a wonder he didn't kill him.

Sullivan says his home is in Philadelphia and that he got shot in a free-for-all fight above Beloit while drinking a keg of beer with some companions. He tells some contradictory stories but there isn't any question about him being one of the gang.

La Point denies having met Sullivan before and says the trouble with Boone started over the latter tipping the boat over.

JANESVILLE PATROL A MODEL. Bower City Service Commended By the Fire Engineers Association.

Chief Engineer John C. Spencer has returned from Montreal where he went to attend the meeting of the National association of Fire Chiefs. Chief Spencer read a paper on "The Service and Economy of Fire Patrols or Salvage Corps in Small Cities" before the convention and the Montreal Daily Star published the accompanying portrait in connection with the days proceedings.

CHIEF JOHN C. SPENCER.

Chief Spencer reviewed the conditions existing in Janesville and gave the plan of organization that had been followed. He asserted that over fifty per cent. of Janesville's fires had been extinguished in the last year with no loss or with nominal loss through the fire patrol's aid. Continuing he said:

"The economy of such a company, I believe, is apparent. Consider the large amount of property such a company is capable of saving, if not by the use of chemicals by their 'covers,' or by an organized corps of men removing goods from a building. Those men take pride in drilling for their work, and some of the more enthusiastic are experts. The wagon does not wait, neither does it halt to pick up men, but from the tap of the bell they are speeding towards the fire in hopes of 'heading off the other fellows.' There is a good natured and commendable rivalry existing in the department, which incites all to promptness. Generally four, hardly ever more than six patrolmen arrive at a fire with the wagon, but the others get there in good time by other ways, consequently the team is never overloaded enough to prevent rapid movements. I believe it would be economy for any city of ten thousand inhabitants to have a patrol similar to the one I have described. It is a necessity in a fire department where there are high pressure water works, and I am convinced that it is more of a necessity in a city using steamers. Were I to make a choice between an addition of a hose company or a patrol, I would not hesitate to recommend the patrol, even if the patrol cost an equal or greater amount. I do not think a full paid patrol company in our small cities would improve the service over the volunteer company."

SEED BARLEY FROM MANTCHOORIA.

Rock County Farmers Offered a Handsome Prize by the Agricultural Station.

A bushel of Mantchooria barley will be given to the farmer having the best display of grain at the Rock county fair this fall. The offer is made by the Wisconsin Agricultural Experimental station.

About 1859 an experimental traveler brought some barley seed from the mountains of Mantchooria, Asia, to Germany, where it was grown at the garden of the emperor at Sans Souci. Dr. Herman Grunow of Milfin, Iowa county, while on a visit to Germany was given some of the seed by the gardener and planting it on his return to Wisconsin, found this variety of barley far superior to anything he had before known. With much forethought Dr. Grunow sent seed to Professor Dantelle, then in charge of the agricultural department, through whose instrumentality it was widely distributed. Dr. Grunow named this barley Manshury, giving an easy spelling for the word Mantchooria. Mantchooria lies just north of Corea, the seat of the present trouble between Japan and China. Manshury barley has been worth millions to the northwest.

In 1889 the Ontario Agricultural college secured a variety of barley from Russia which no doubt came originally from the same country as the Russians called it Mandcheuri. Two years ago the Wisconsin Agricultural Experiment Station secured seed of the Mandcheuri barley from the Ontario Station and found that it thrived on the station farm. Last spring an arrangement was made with A. F. Noyes, a large raiser of barley at Beaver Dam, to grow this variety. The yield of Mandcheuri with Mr. Noyes this year was 39.6 bushels of 50 lbs. each per acre, while the other half of the field sown to Manshury, the old strain, from carefully selected seed, yielded 37.8 bushels of 50 pounds each per acre. At the Ontario Agricultural college the Mandcheuri barley has averaged about 5 bushels per acre more than any other variety tested by the station.

Flag Raising.
School District No. 3 township of Beloit, celebrated Wednesday, August 15 by a picnic and flag-raising. They raised a sixteen-foot flag to the top of a forty-five foot pole. The programme consisted of instrumental music, patriotic songs, and addresses by F. P. Starr and Superintendent Throne, followed by a grand dinner at 1 o'clock. There was a large attendance. Crane G. A. R. Post, of Beloit, was well represented, attended by the Relief and Drum Corps.

KELLY'S STABLES ARE NOT ON EDGE.

DENVER HORSES HARDLY IN SHAPE FOR FAST WORK.

So He Told the Owners Before He Started Out, But They Said "Go." So He Went—Was in Janesville Over Sunday—Local Horses at Chicago.

John Kelly, the famous driver, was in town over Sunday. His horses are now at Chicago which gave him the opportunity of spending a day at his old home. Mr. Kelly's stable, this year, is not the money winner that the Salisbury outfit was, but it is understood that the Janesville driver is doing better financially than last season. Before he left Denver he told the Dubois brothers that the horses were not in condition to beat grand circuit flyers but they said that they wanted him to take them and drive them so he did. While he has won some money with them it has not been in one or two thousand dollar chunks but the owners are satisfied so everyone else ought to be.

Mr. Kelly drove "Sure," a gelding, in the "infant stake" for that age at Chicago Saturday and got second money, while today he has Jennie McCoy in the 2:20 pacing race and Carbonate, the sensational three-year old pacer in the 2:35 stake for that age. Carbonate will compete with a good field including Ethel A. who won her race here in June in 2:17, Sphinxetta, who also won here in July, and a dozen others all of whom are good for miles under 2:20.

McKinney Has Three Entered.

Henry D. McKinney, also has several entries. In the two-year race today he has Coupon, the phenomenal Director colt who has won everything he has gone after this season. In this event Coupon came in competition with such noted ones as Whalebone, Cripple, Woodbine and Miss Kate, not to speak of a dozen others. In the 2:20 pace McKinney has Alice Director who had to race with Whirligig, Hal Pulaski and a lot of others who are good for five or ten seconds under the classification. In the traders' futurity he had G. W. Howe.

John C. Chadwick had a ride in fast company at Chicago Saturday. He had Bovee K. in the 2:25 pacing race and a good many people thought he would get distanced. Although the man won in 2:11 flat the Janesville man kept inside the flannel while two others were left outside. He got sixth place twice and seventh once. Bovee K. is a four-year-old by Royalton. He started out this season with a record of 2:24 which he has cut by steps in races to 2:15. When he got within reaching distance of the wire in 2:11 he showed that his limit is not yet reached.

George West, the Chicago driver, who is well known to Janesville horsemen, won the two mile trotting derby at Chicago yesterday and the Inter Ocean publishes his portrait with a sketch of his life. Starting Judge McCarthy was also pictured with a very complimentary notice.

When the Liver Reprimands Us

For our neglect of it by inflicting upon us sick headache, by dyeing the skin yellow, coating the tongue with fur, producing vertigo, pains in the right side and souring the breath, we are little less than lunatics if we disregard the chastisement. If we call Hostetter's Stomach Bitters to our aid, tranquility and health follow speedily, and with the departure of the symptoms mentioned, departs also irregularity of the bowels, which invariably attends disorder of the liver. In malarial complaints the liver is always involved, and it is a fortunate circumstance that this fine anti-bilious medicine is also the finest specific in existence for every form of malarial disease. Nor is it less efficacious for dyspepsia, failure of appetite and strength, nervousness and a rheumatic tendency. It renews the ability to sleep, and greatly promotes convalescence after wasting diseases.

PHELPS IN BERLIN.

His Entertainments Were the Talk of the Whole Town.

Berliners will never cease talking of the manner in which Minister Phelps procured a handsome residence right in the heart of their capital and within gunshot of the Linden—not a small undertaking in a city where the private houses can be counted on the fingers of one hand and where everybody lives in flats. The only suitable house, for which Mr. Phelps had offered an annual rental of 100,000 marks, was unavailable, owing to legal difficulties, and though the court, the foreign office and his friends of the diplomatic corps assisted in the search, no other dwelling fit for his purpose could be found. With the practical ideas of an American, and regardless of cost where the proper representation of his country was concerned, Mr. Phelps then decided to create the right kind of a house if he could not find it ready. He leased the upper part of a new house in Neue Wilhelm strasse, and at once commenced tearing down and rebuilding until a typical American home had been established, which on account of its amplitude and accessibility to light and air, became the talk of the town.

The entire American colony was invited for the opening, and thereafter the minister's residence was never closed against any of his countrymen, rich or poor; indeed it became the Mecca of many a poor and struggling artist or student, and none left it without kindly advice and—where needed—substantial aid. During Mr. Phelps' tenure of office in Berlin the number of American students there trebled, while many distinguished and wealthy Americans, attracted by the fame of his hospitality, removed from Paris and other towns to the German capital.

DERELICTS IN THE ATLANTIC.

One Wreck That Has Been Floating Around for Nearly Three Years.

The report that the famous derelict, the Fannie F. Wolston, has been sighted again, this time about 250 miles east of Norfolk, awakens fresh interest in the champion and record breaker among existing wanderers on the sea. This schooner of Bath, Me., was wrecked more than two years and eight months ago, and has ever since drifted in the Atlantic, making a total course of many thousands of miles. About two months ago she was sighted not very far apparently from her present position, but the indications are said to be that, as she is now on the eastern edge of the gulf stream, she may float with it up to the trans-Atlantic steamer line, and so be a still greater peril to navigation.

The history of that vessel alone would form a sufficient argument for carrying out promptly the proposed system of international police for the destruction of dangerous derelicts. It was shown by the commissioner of navigation in his last report that in a period of five years there had been 832 known derelicts on the Atlantic coast of North America, besides 625 wrecks whose tracks were not marked. On the pilot chart for one month alone forty-five derelicts still afloat were marked, of which more than half appeared to be in the path of the trans-Atlantic steamers. Of course many have a short career, as they speedily break up or sink, but the experience of the Wolston shows how persistent is the peril in some cases, for she is only one of a large number known to keep afloat for years.

President Carnot's Successor.

Casimir-Perier, the new president of France, is barely 47 years of age, but he has had a long public career and comes of a line famous in France for its political services. For three generations his family, like that of the late President Carnot, has held high places in public life. The present Casimir-Perier en-

A Costly Amusement.

The man in Skowhegan, Maine, who has been amusing himself by poisoning his neighbors' dogs, is now amusing his neighbors by setting the bills, $25 to $50 for each dead dog. That's as remunerative to the owner as getting the dog's life insured.

THE CROSBY COURSE OF ILLUSTRATED LECTURES.

Residents of this place who cannot spend a year away from business (and a small fortune besides), among the echoing valleys and ice fields of Switzerland, or along the shores of the classic Nile, will soon have the opportunity of seeing colossal pictures—15 feet square—of those countries, and hearing them explained by a man who knows both their meaning and their history.

Prof. E. C. CROSBY,

is a man of middle age, his life having been spent in study and travel. The old Nile, one of the Bible rivers, visited by Abraham, studied by Herodotus, overlooked by colossal gods and temples, presents an impressive history. The frosty peaks of Europe's Liberty Garden, and the hot, brassy skies that overhang those wondrous shores of the Nile—countries strangely opposed in nearly every feature—seem brought into the very presence of the audience.

Ex-Gov. Robinson Laid to Rest.

On the Ground Early at Yankton, S. D.

ASSIST NATURE

a little now and then, with a gentle, cleansing laxative, thereby removing offending matter from the stomach and bowels, and toning up and invigorating the liver and quickening its tardy action, and you thereby remove the cause of a multitude of distressing diseases, such as headaches, indigestion, biliousness, skin diseases, boils, carbuncles, piles, fistulas and maladies too numerous to mention.

If people would pay more attention to properly regulating the action of their bowels, they would have less frequent occasion to call for their doctor's services to subdue attacks of dangerous diseases.

That, of all known agents to accomplish this purpose, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are unequalled, is proven by the fact that once used, they are always in favor. Their secondary effect is to keep the bowels open and regular, not to further constipate, as is the case with other pills. Hence, their great popularity with sufferers from habitual constipation, piles and indigestion.

Economy Is the Road to Wealth.

Coo, Coo. A popular fallacy tells us that a Cuckoo lays eggs in another bird's nest. Instead of being a fallacy it resolves itself into a stubborn fact, when applied to the tradesmen of today who are known as "cuckoos," and their name is legion, if we are to judge from the number of eggs—golden ones at that, which they deposit in our nest every day. The cuckoo advertises in spread eagle style. "Don't chew the rag," "The Best on Earth," "Our Second Victory," "Glad to have you take the Goods at Your Own Price," "Merchandise has no value." Such flaming announcements, attractively displayed, naturally attracts the attention of buyers, who are ever on the alert for bargains, who hie themselves hurriedly to the ranches of the "cuckoos," only to find all is not gold that glitters. Indignant at being hoodooed, they turn away in disgust and come straight-way to us and buy a

Happenings On Janesville Streets Since

Morning Are Here Mirrored Accurately for Supper Table Review—Comings and Goings of People Well Known.

No grander excursion will ever leave Janesville than that of the Concordia society and the Bower City band August 26. Whenever these two organizations join hands, "success" is the proper word to be printed on the banner. The objective point will be Watertown and a grand picnic on the island all day. The fare is only one dollar and twenty-five cents from this point and Milton Junction, one dollar and fifteen cents from Fort Atkinson. Tickets good for four days can be had from any of the committee on arrangements, who are Charles Wisch, Theo. Beyer and Carl Brochhaus.

Two Janesville ladies are especially mentioned by Racine papers in connection with the druggists' convention. Mrs. E. B. Heinstreet was elected vice president of the ladies' auxiliary society. Mrs. Fred Crouse won the prize for driving eight-penny nails into a pine plank, and received a handsome velvet case filled with Lundborg's perfume.

The Marie Wilson comedy company passed through Janesville this morning on their way to Shullsburg. The leading lady and the advance agent banded a few round words about the depot platform, the outgrowth of the alleged disposition of the latter to sit still and play the gentleman.

Now is the best time to go and see land in Clark county, for sale by the C. S. Graves Land Co. The present price will be the lowest for which it will ever be offered. Why rent a farm or pay a high price for it when you can buy of this company at only $7.50 per acre, easy terms.

STOCKHOLDERS should remember that next Monday, August 20, is pay day of the Loan, Building and Savings association. The office of the secretary is at the Rock County bank, which will be open from 7 to 9 p. m.

"LITTLE EVA" GOES TO ANOTHER LAND.CHIEF ACHESON HOLDS THE GATES AJAR FOR HER.

After Giving a Very Enjoyable Bird Shooting Party, Much to the Disgust of the Neighbors, She Is Induced To Take Her Leave To Avoid Arrest.

"Little" Eva Little will load herself upon the cars tomorrow and the aggregate weight of the community will be lessened by two hundred pounds. Little Eva is not so guileless as her name would indicate. Yesterday she entertained a large and select party of gentlemen friends at a "bird shooting party" at the home of a friend of hers near the Second ward stand pipe. A bird shooting party is a novelty. Each guest is allowed so many shots with a gun at a bird and the noise disturbed the neighbors until they thought patience had ceased to be a virtue and as virtues with Eva are scarce complaint was made. Arrest or a sudden leave taking were the two alternatives and after an interview with Chief Acheson Eva decided to go.

THE ATHLETICS WIN A GOOD GAME.

It Took Ten Innings to Defeat the Milwaukee Laureds.

Janesville people saw a good game of base ball at Athletic park yesterday afternoon when the Athletics and the Milwaukee Laureds met. The Cream City aggregation were in command of Gus Alberts, the well-known leaguer, while George Wilbur captained the Athletics. Janesville was victorious, defeating the visitors by a score of 6 to 4 although it took ten innings to do so. The teams were well balanced and the contest was a spirited one as the score shows. The attendance was very fair.

WILL SOON BE AT HOME.

The Lauderdale Victims to be Taken to Rockford.

Janesville campers report that Mrs. Charles Hollenbeck and Mrs. E. F. Brown, the two victims of the fire at Lauderdale Lake, the particulars of which are still fresh in the public mind, are resting much easier, and it is hoped that they will be able to be moved the first of next week. The only danger now lies in the possibility of either of the ladies taking a chill, which would be very serious.

BOYS MUSTN'T "JUMP" TRAINS.

Legs Likely to be Missing and Arrest Is Also Probable.

Boys who jump on trains run two risks. One is liability of being lamed for life if not killed and the other is running into the clutches of the law. There is a city ordinance against it and this morning Officer Kruse caught a lad hanging on the side of a moving car but decided not to put him in jail.

GONE TO THE OTHER SHORE.

Mrs. Edwin Fifield.

Friends filled the home of Edwin Fifield at 101 South Main street Sunday afternoon and paid tribute to the gentleness and charm of the one who had passed away. Flowers filled the house with their odors, an immense cluster of white lilies from the Fire Police being especially noticeable. Mr. Fifield's business associates sent a mass of smilax and roses that almost hid the top of the casket.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. H. Barrington. Mrs. Torrens and Mrs. Conrad sang. Mrs. Will Sherer accompanying at the piano. The pall bearers were George M. McKey, Frank Hazelton, Charles D. Stevens, S. C. Burnham, Leod E. Becker and Victor P. Richardson.

Charles Lagerman.

Eighty-two members of the United Workmen and thirty-five members of the Railway Trainmen as well as many friends attended the funeral of Charles Lagerman yesterday afternoon. Rev. W. F. Requa officiating assisted by Rev. Speich of Waukesha. The pall bearers were E. G. Bennett, E. F. Fish, George Schottle, Will Dee, Frank Burroughs and William Boshe.

A CONTRACT was let to James Cape for the building of a viaduct at Washington avenue, Racine, for $3,225. This is the viaduct destroyed by the bursting of a water pipe several months ago. The Racine Water company refused to pay for the repair, and before the matter is settled there will be much litigation.

HORSE KILLED BY A TROLLEY WIRE

Mrs. J. H. Kinney Meets With a Singular Accident in the First Ward.

Mrs. J. H. Kinney's horse ran into a sagging trolley wire while Mrs. Kinney, Miss Hattie Kinney and Romaine C. Holdredge were driving in the First ward Saturday night. The animal was killed instantly. The mark of the wire was plainly discernible on the animal where it had burned into the flesh. Mr. Holdredge also came in contact with the wire but did not get a sufficiently strong shock to result seriously.

RUNAWAY BRONCHOS FILLED THEM.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Huggett Had a Narrow Escape Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Huggett, of Porter, were thrown from a buggy by a runaway broncho near Stearns & Baker's store Saturday evening. Mr. Huggett got quite a cut over one eye and Mrs. Huggett was bruised on her arm and her face was scratched up. Mr. Huggett had to replace his trousers with a pair of Officer Kruse's and went home with a two-foot reef in the borrowed garment.

A Few Tips On Hats.

By written agreement, no agency, hat, or style of hat for the season is shown any place until a certain day. For instance, our Miller hat opening occurs the 25th of this month. On this same day the Miller hat is shown all over the United States. On other dates, by written agreement, the Knox, Dunlap and Youman hats will be shown, not a minute before. None of these hats or this fall's styles of them can be shown yet. One week from today we will show you the genuine Miller hat. No one else in the city can show it of the style. It is the latest out, and no one but us dare to take hold of them. Anyone claiming to show the fall styles of Miller, claims what is not true and is deceiving you to get some trade. It has also come to our notice that some concerns are advertising to show the Dunlap, Knox and Youman style hats for this fall. This is wholly false, as they will not and cannot be shown before September 1. T. J. ZIEGLER.

FRANCHISE NO USE

AT EDGERTON.

Hugh McInnes' House Destroyed Through Lack of Protection—The Only Restraining Influence Was a Pumping Station Franchise Which Got Very Wet.

Hugh McInnes lost his home in Edgerton by fire last night. The flames might have been conquered had there been adequate protection, but the town is without water works. The water works franchise, which was granted not long ago, was in the pocket of one of the firemen and was soaked until it could hardly be recognized.

Three Special Bargains Wednesday, August 22d.

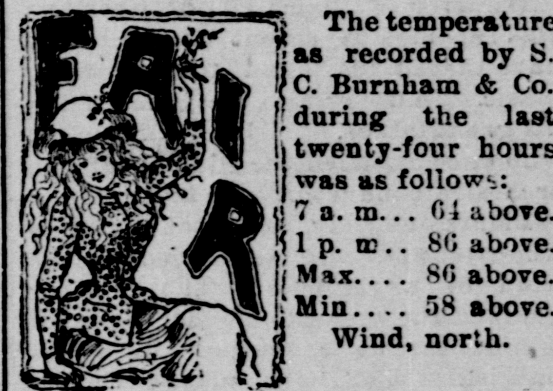

The light weight garments—Last Wednesday's sale of jackets and capes at $1.37 was particularly successful, with the result that about one-half the line was sold; but there were many ladies who did not attend the sale, for their benefit we will repeat it in connection with next Wednesday's sale. August 22d, capes and jackets, worth up to $15.00, at $3.87, which is a reduction of $1.00 from last Wednesday's price.

Mackerel Wearing a Rubber Band.

A mackerel with a rubber band—a sort of primitive corset—around its body has caused much comment at Gloucester, Mass. The band had evidently been put on him when he was small, and had stayed there in spite of its rapid growth. Under the band the fish's body had not grown, and the depression was about three inches deep. The band was sound and flexible, and the fish was in a healthy condition.

A VERY FASHIONABLE ENGLISH WEDDING.

PRETTY SCENE AT A SELECT ENGLISH WEDDING.

Leonard Brassey and Lady Violet Gordon Joined in Matrimony After the Old English Fashion—Members of Old Families.

FASHIONABLE was the congregation that met at St. Paul's church, London, a fortnight ago to witness the marriage of Mr. Leonard Brassey of Preston Hall, Kent, with the Lady Violet Gordon-Lennox, second daughter of the Earl of March and granddaughter of the Duke of Richmond and Gordon. The chancel was handsomely adorned with lilies and a variety of white flowers interspersed with palms, and the altar was covered with white exotics.

There were ten bridesmaids in attendance; the six elder ladies dressed in white satin, with yoke, sash and the lower part of the sleeves of pale pink chiffon covered with white chiffon. The full satin bodice was gathered into a deep pointed belt of ecru lace, and the skirt was edged with a frill of satin headed with a fine puffing of pink and white chiffon. The four little children wore fairy-like frocks of white chiffon with pink and white sashes and yokes of the same transparent material, and round the hem fine guipure lace was inserted in festoons. All wore broad-brimmed hats of burnt straw trimmed with lace of the same color, with up-standing bows of white satin ribbon veiled with lace and clusters of pink roses over the crown.

The bridegroom presented six of the bridesmaids with diamond dagger brooches, and the four children with diamond and turquoise pendants, and all carried the graceful newly-shaped shower bouquet of pink roses.

The bride wore a dress of rich white satin, the bodice made with crossway folds of satin, shoulder straps embroidered with silver and finished with bows, and old lace chiffon daintily arranged round the neck and shoulders; the full court train from the neck was of satin, edged with a twist of the same and silver embroidery. She wore a narrow bandeau of orange blossoms in her hair and a tulle veil attached by a diamond bird, and round her throat was the pearl collar divided by diamond bars, given to her by her grandfather, the Duke of Richmond and Gordon. Her train was carried by her four little bridesmaids.

Princess Edward of Saxe-Weimar was dressed in mauve and black brocade, with epaulettes of mauve chiffon, and wore a bonnet to match. Lady Settrington, sister to the bridegroom, was in dove gray satin with a pink satin collar, the dress being tastefully trimmed with lace and a gray chiffon sash; her large black velvet hat was ornamented with pink bows and small diamond buckles; her ladyship's infant daughter, and god-daughter of the bride and bridegroom, was present, and represented the fifth generation of the family at the wedding. As a souvenir, the bridegroom presented her with two jewels like those worn by the bridesmaids, which were fastened in front of her little gown.

Shad on the Pacific Coast.

The experiment of planting shad in the rivers of the Pacific coast has proved a marked success. Until twenty years ago shad were unknown in those waters, and even ten years ago there were no shad fisheries in California, Oregon and Washington. In 1876 about 1,000,000 shad fry were deposited in the rivers of the Pacific coast, and in 1892 526,494 shad were taken in California and 212,350 were caught in the Columbia river. The catch in California was five times that of Connecticut, four times that of Massachusetts, twenty times that of Rhode Island, nearly double that of Georgia and nearly equal to that of South Carolina, while that of the Columbia river was nearly double that of the Connecticut river. One can not help wondering whether the flavor of the Connecticut river shad is equalled by that of his Columbian cousin. The United States fish commissioner predicts that the time may come when canned shad from the Columbia will be a staple article in the eastern market, but perhaps he anticipates the complete extinction of the best eastern shad. The Connecticut shad fishing business has already so far declined as to be a mere shadow of a once great industry.

Freaks of Lightning.

The electric fluid is given to queer pranks, and the unexpected is quite likely to happen when it gets possession of the atmosphere. It is reported that a physician, who was recently returning from a visit to a patient, was caught in a violent thunder storm, during which it became so dark that it was with great difficulty that he could see his way along the public highway. Suddenly what appeared to be a ball of fire descended upon him, throwing him over a ditch by the roadway and into an adjoining field. After about ten minutes, he recovered from the shock, which had for the time entirely deprived him of the power of motion. He was carrying an umbrella when the shock came, and upon gathering himself up and looking about for his parachute, found it completely wrecked. The cover was entirely burned off, and the wires were bent and twisted into every imaginable shape. Ball lightning is said to be the most dangerous of all forms assumed by this eccentric element, and, fortunately for the human family, it is the rarest.

EMPEROR AS LEADER.

William I. of Germany Once Wielded the Leader's Baton.

Emperor William II. of Germany was reported in recent dispatches to have turned his hand to composing music. In doing this, he is imitating his grandfather, the late William I., who once assumed the duties of an orchestra conductor. He had gone to Coblenz one day to meet Empress Augusta, and was serenaded by the band of a regiment. The emperor thanked the orchestra leader, but said to him that the movement of a certain ballet had been played in too quick a time. The same piece was, by his order, to be executed during the evening banquet. William I. rose from the table a few moments before it was to be played and suddenly took the place of the conductor. Seizing the baton, he gave the signal to begin to play, saying to the musicians: "Well, gentlemen, very slow, please," and, as the music went on, often repeating, "Still slower!" When the piece was ended he said: "It is superb, in this way," thanked the musicians, and graciously returned to his seat at the table.

Mr. Barrie's Wife.

The author of the "Professor's Love Story," says the Sketch, has now one of his own. Mr. J. M. Barrie, happily recovering from his long illness, has married Miss Mary Ansell. "Gavin Ogilby" not long ago declared to an American interviewer that he quite intended to marry. If only to have the convenience of using his wife's hairpins to clean his pipes; now there is the realization of this wish. Miss Ansell was the original Nancy O'Brien in her husband's play "Walker, London," but latterly she has not been before the public.

Taxation of Bicycles.

The law taxing bicycles in France exempted those used for "administrative business, emanating from a competent authority." A parish priest who visits on a bicycle claims that his bishop, under whose orders he acts, is a "competent authority," and that his bicycle need pay no tax under the law. In the first court the priest has been beaten, but he will appeal to the council of state in Paris.

The Occasional Contributor.

An occasional contributor to the magazines says that it is becoming next to useless to offer articles to their editors. "Magazines," he declares, "are made up more and more from ordered matter, and the men who stand in favor with the editors have the call. I don't believe in this talk about 'rings' and 'cliques,' but we can all tell whom we may expect to find in the next number of Harper's or the Century, and even what artist will make the illustrations. When I have a scheme for an article now I write to an editor and ask him if it's of any use to send it. Generally it isn't. The American magazine is becoming about as conventional, cut and dried an affair as a patent office report. Stories of incident, romances and essays are barred, and young writers are actively discouraged. The newspapers are taking the place of magazines with a large class of readers."—N. Y. Sun.
